REPORT ON PARKS AND RECREATION ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Hutchinson announced that the summer activities are in full swing. Several sports camps are taking place and last week's Monday Madness had about 200 people in attendance. This Monday's performer is the Critterman which is always very popular. Learn to Swim is going on and the pool maintenance position has been filled.

REPORT ON PARKS AND RECREATION SPORTS

Mr. Hubert announced that the 10u state softball tournament would be next week at Old Settler's Park. Opening ceremonies will be on Sunday with the mayor, council, and park board members attending. Mr. Hubert reported that the community would get a boost with all of the hotels full and people spending money locally. Tuesday night will be Movie in the Park with "Despicable Me" playing on field 8. Hot Summer Nights will be on Thursday at Pecan Grove West and the championship game will be Thursday at 6:00. Mr. Hubert stated that the coach's meeting is Sunday at 2:00. There are two Sherman teams and two Denison teams participating in the tournament. Chairman Trent Bass said he would help with the blind draw Sunday at the coach's meeting.

OTHER BUSINESS

Chairman Trent Bass asked if any odd behavior had been reported at Herman Baker Park. Mrs. Hutchinson said no to her knowledge.
